CLEBURNE.

Suspicious Actions of a Passenger—
Candidates—The Telephone—
Newspaper Change—A Novel Case.

Cleburne, March 30.—Last night an individual named George Pierce aroused the suspicions of Conductor Driscoll, of the Santa Fe passenger, by pulling the bell rope when the train passed the spot, near Blum station, where an attempt was made to rob it some time since. Pierce was arrested by the conductor, brought to Cleburne and placed in charge of Marshal Criner. To-day he was released on instructions from Deputy United States Marshal Woody.

Messrs Warren G. Rutledge and Forney D. Smyth have announced for city treasurer. They are both good citizens and either would make a capital official.

Part of the telephone material arrived last night from New York city. A change has been made in the management of the Telegram by which Mr. W. H. Graves, the oldest newspaper man in the county, becomes one of the proprietors. It will hereafter be published by Graves &amp; Senter.

It is rumored here that the Pacific Express Company will do business over the entire line of the Santa Fe after April 1st.

A novel case was decided in the county court yesterday. Mrs. June Fastus, living near Meredith, between Cleburne and Alvarado, brought suit against the Gulf, Colorado &amp; Santa Fe railroad for overcharge on passenger fare, claiming $500 statutory damages. She boarded the train two miles this side of Meredith, flagging it at a section house. The conductor charged her full fare from Meredith and she instituted the suit on the basis of the six cents which she alleged should have been deducted from the fare. The jury found for the defendant.

Mr. George W. DeHaven, manager of the Lewis' Great Eastern Show, called on the GAZETTE yesterday and complimented that the special telegram in this paper yesterday from Cleburne did him injustice. Mr. DeHaven says he does not pretend that his is a circus performance but a variety show; and that while it is true he has five negroes in the troupe, they do not by any means constitute the entire force, as he has from thirty to forty people. He exhibited highly commendatory articles from papers from places he has visited, and the GAZETTE very cheerfully yields its space for this correction made by Mr. DeHaven—it not being the wish or intention of the paper to injure or misrepresent any one.
